Could policing be for you?

Policing is a demanding career, requiring:

- commitment to training and learning new skills
- 24/7 shift work in an operational environment
- potential relocation to meet Service needs across the state
- ability to demonstrate Queensland Police Service (QPS) values of integrity, respect and courage.

Start preparing now

To give yourself the best opportunity for success, we recommend you start building your confidence, communication and life skills. You can do this by:

- volunteering
- getting involved with local community and sporting groups
- working a part-time job.

Eligibility to apply

You can apply from 17.5 years and must be at least 18 years to commence recruit training.

You must also meet a number of eligibility requirements regarding education or work experience, driver licence status and citizenship or residency status.
